Aaron Short Biography:

Aaron Short is a Camdenton graduate from the class of 2008. Aaron was involved in several ensembles including basketball band, jazz band, percussion ensemble and both concert band and symphonic band. Aaron then went on to study music education at Missouri State University. Aaron was a section leader of the pride drumline all 4 years of being in that ensemble. Aaron was in three separate concert bands, two percussion ensembles, two jazz bands, and two basketball bands. Aaron marched Freedom Indoor World Percussion as the bass drum section leader in 2011.

Aaron is now a Percussion Technician for Camdenton and has been doing so since the summer of 2009. Aaron's current aspiration is starting a marching band show design and coordinating company to bring knowledge gained from the incredible staff at Camdenton to Missouri schools looking to follow in the footsteps of an amazing program.

Aaron spends most of his free time working with his wife, Julie Short. Together, they design and teach Winter Guard in the Ft. Zumwalt school district. They also are avid rock climbers and hikers in their free time. Their two dogs, Darla and Bernadette, are basically their kids, and travel on vacation every year with them.
