Joe Presson's Biography:

Mr. Joe Presson is in his 7th year of teaching and his 1st year at Camdenton. Mr. Presson has previously worked as Associate Director of Bands for Branson Public Schools as well as Director of Bands for the Concordia High School Marching Orioles. He received his Bachelor of Music Education degree from the University of Missouri - Kansas City Conservatory of Music in 2015. During his time at the Conservatory, Mr. Presson performed with the Conservatory Wind Symphony, Wind Ensemble, Tuba - Euphonium Studio Ensemble, and 'Pfive! a Brass Quintet'.

Outside of the Conservatory, Mr. Presson performed with the Northland Symphony Orchestra as Principal Tubist for 4 seasons. He also performed with the nationally recognized Fountain City Brass Band for 2 years, and was named the Missouri winner of the MTNA Young Artist Brass Solo Competition.

Mr. Presson is a native of St. Louis, MO and is an alumnus of the Lindbergh High School Spirit of St. Louis band program. He is a proud supporter of his favorite St. Louis sports teams - the Cardinals and the Blues. Mr. Presson enjoys playing golf, playing his tuba, and spending time with his wife Erin.
